

Dole Bludging Blues

[Picking, 13-bar blues]

Intro: 8 bars E

1.

E

Killing time comes easy, easy as can be

A7 E

Killing time comes easy, easy as can be

B7 A7

But I sometimes get to thinking

E E7

Maybe time is killing me

2.

Well my friends get into trouble, and the rain gets in my shoes

Well my friends get into trouble, and the rain gets in my shoes

And the mailman's got no answer to those dole-bludging blues

Bridge:

A7

Mary Jane, she goes to heaven, the boss can go to hell

E E7

And where the politician's going, there's no honest man can tell

A7

Some people make their fortune, some people make the news

E E7

But I just sit around and make those dole bludging blues

[Instrumental?] A7/A7/A7/A7/E/E/E7 (Repeat)

B7/B7/A7/A7/E/E/B7/B7

3.

If you leave your sister nothing, she's got nothing left to lose

If you leave your brother nothing, he's got nothing left to lose

And maybe that's the answer to those dole bludging blues

Instrumental – blues lead guitar

Repeat verse 3 (Repeat last line 3 times)
